

After the upper cab mount has been installed on top of the frame mount, be sure to install the appropriate washer that rides between the mount and the cab floor.